COMMUNIQUE

- Mindful of the Constitution and the Rules and Regulations of the Party;
- Mindful of the NEC resolutions of 23rd July 2022;

The Secretary General hereby informs all militants of the SDF party that with effect of the signature of this communique, party members communicating on behalf of the party shall henceforth be subject to vetting by a competent authority namely the Secretary General, the National Secretary for Communication or the Shadow Cabinet Minister for Information and Media.

To this effect, the Secretary General instructs the National Secretary for Communication to work in consultation with the Shadow Cabinet Minister for Information and Media, to brainstorm and establish a list of competent communicators from all ten regions within the party that will be forwarded to the National Secretariat latest by the 31st August 2022.

Party members who are capable and willing to be communicators of the party are encouraged to forward their names to the National Secretary for Communication or the Shadow cabinet Minister for Information and the Media as soon as possible.

Final approval of the lists of SDF communicators in all ten regions shall be done by the Secretary General. Thereafter, the National Secretary for Communication and the Shadow Cabinet Minister for Information and Media shall establish a daily and weekly timetable for SDF communicators on the various TV and Radio platforms across the national territory.

Failure to comply to this instruction will expose offenders to serious disciplinary sanctions.
